Notice of Hearings Review or Appeal Requests No. 2024-01 No. 2024-02 No. 2024-03

The Review and Appeal Panel will hold oral hearings to consider the appeals requested by Brandi Marriott, Brandon Peters, and Alexandra Souch (the Applicants) of the decisions of Jordan Loose, Elections Officer (the Respondent) not to certify the Applicants as candidates in the Tla'amin Nation September 14, 2024 election.

The hearings are scheduled for Monday, August 19, 2024

at the following times

10:00 am	No. 2024-01 – Marriott
11:30 am	No. 2024-02 – Peters
1:00 pm	No. 2024-03 – Souch

Start times for No. 2024-02 and No. 2024-03 may be adjusted based on the conclusion of the preceding hearing.

These hearings are open to the Tla'amin public.

The hearings will be held by video-conference. The public may view the hearings via Zoom or in person at the viewing centre in the Governance House Lobby. Anyone wishing to view the hearings must register in advance at www.tlaaminnation.com/rap.

The public may observe the proceedings but may not participate in the hearings.

A person may apply to participate in the hearing as an intervener by delivering a completed Form RAP-9 Application to Intervene to the Panel via an email to the clerk on or before Thursday, August 8, 2024 at 4:30 pm. Application requirements are provided in Rule 22 the Panel Rules of Procedure which are on the Tla'amin Nation website at www.tlaaminnation.com/laws-regulations-policies. Form RAP-9 is included with Rules or may be obtained from the clerk.

Where timely notice of the hearing of an appeal is given and a participant fails to attend at the hearing, the Panel may proceed with the hearing and disposition of the review or appeal, without further notice to the participant [Rule 24(11)], Review & Appeal Panel Rules of Procedure).

Notwithstanding general public access to the hearings, the Panel reserves the right to require that certain information received during the course of the hearings be excluded from the public and a participant under Rules 26 and 30 of the Review and Appeal Panel Rules of Procedure dated February 16, 2024.

In accordance with the Election Law sec. 30.(3) the Applicants will be treated for all purposes as candidates for the election pending the Review and Appeal Panel's decisions on the appeals.
